All done, right? Stewardship checklist complete. Where's my cake?

As much as I would like to stop writing right here and go outside and enjoy this beautiful day with the satisfaction of having done my obligatory membership duties, my inner consciousness is whispering, "you're just getting started."

Just getting started? Haven't we been at this for 3 years, actually 4 since the pandemic? We have celebrated the long tenure of two cherished ministers and grieved the loss of their steady presence. We have worked with an interim minister in remembering our past and crafting a vision for our future. We met with Search Team members, told them our stories and shared our hopes and dreams for the future and even filled out a crazy long form detailing our opinions and direction moving forward.

Surely, we're done right?

And yet the voice in my head is still saying "you're just getting started."

As much as I try to deny it, now is the time to take a breath, stop for a bit and listen to this voice. I may need some quiet time and stillness to hear it, but this voice is trying to tell me something. It's a call to something deeper and richer in my own life. It's a call to connection and purpose in our congregation. It's a call to centering love, making meaning, and finding connection in a broken world.

The call is telling me that the journey we have been on over the past years has challenged and changed us. We are stronger and more resilient. And with this wisdom comes responsibility, and that is the essence of stewardship.

We stand on the precipice of a new era at ORUUC. And while I love to cross things off a list, and there is audible relief that much of the getting to this point work is completed and we can take a breath, we have a lot of work to do.

Right now, if you stop, I believe each of you are being called. Called to greater service, called to deeper connection, and called to live a life with greater meaning.

The coming year and years are an opportunity and a fresh start. A time for us to figure out who we are, where we have been, and where we are going. Now is the time and place to answer your call and understand its place in the mission of our church. Are you called to care for others? Are you called to help ensure fiscal security and responsibility of the church? Are you called to make coffee or run the dishwasher?

Whatever your unique calling may be, answer it and begin the work of transformation in yourself and in our church. Our faith compels us to answer the call of love and to act on it. It's time to get started! And there will be cake at some point, I promise.

What a difference our Church makes in the world. Generous and transformational giving makes our vital and vibrant community possible. As our church welcomes a new minister, let's ensure that ORUUC continues to have a role to play in shaping the larger community by giving boldly.

April Split the Plate Offering: The Child Advocacy Center of Anderson County

Every Sunday we share our offering 50/50 with a local agency chosen by our members during a vote at the Congregational Meeting each June. This month, the recipient is the Child Advocacy of Anderson County.

The mission of this organization is "Healing and Justice for Abused Children". It serves approximately 400-500 children annually. At the center, staff provide forensic interviews, forensic medical exams, trauma focused - cognitive behavioral therapy, and other victim services including education and advocacy. CAC coordinates the Anderson County Child Protective Investigative Team and are trained in diversity, inclusion, and equity for all clients. ORUUC's support of the Child Advocacy Center has helped many children heal and recover from traumatic abuse, thus supporting the dignity and worth of each child served. These are the most vulnerable members of our community. ORUUC's support makes a positive difference in their lives. Please GIVE HERE as you are willing and able, or text "ORUUC" to 73256.

Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church Welcomes Lóre Stevens April 20-28

The Ministerial Search Team feels that Lóre is a living representation of what congregants wished for ORUUC in the survey and cottage meetings last fall: A caring community where diversity is welcomed; an outward-looking community working to embody a just world; a liberal community that celebrates the earth and the interdependent web of all existence. We hope you will enjoy getting to know her this week!

What is Candidating Week?

For the last year, the ORUUC Ministerial Search Team has engaged in an intensive campaign to find our next settled minister, and we have made a choice! But the work is not done yet. Candidating week is the opportunity to get to know our ministerial candidate and show our candidate what a Welcoming Congregation we are. All members and friends are invited to participate in this exciting week of activities. At the end of the week, members will vote to call our settled minister.

To help the week run smoothly, please consider the following:

- DO attend at least one event during the week outside of Sunday Services.
- DO ask the candidate all your questions.
- DO show the candidate that we are a Welcoming Congregation.
- DO be sensitive to this intense, tiring, and overwhelming week for our candidate; please be considerate.
- DO share your time with the candidate and invite others into the conversation.
- DO bring any questions or concerns to the Ministerial Search Team. Please email churchsearch2324@gmail.com.
- DO attend the congregational meeting after the service on April 28 to cast your vote.

Candidating Week Schedule: Check out Page 5 and 6!

Voting on April 28, 2024

Candidating Week will end with a congregational meeting and vote immediately after the service on April 28 at 11:30 to vote on calling Lóre as our settled minister. Please make every effort to attend this meeting since we need a quorum of 25% of all members. As we take the next big step in the history of Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church, it is critical to hear from every voice and for all to participate in this process.

85% of voting members must vote YES to Lóre as our next settled minister. Note: According to ORUUC bylaws, special elections are IN PERSON voting ONLY with NO proxies allowed. This means that members must be PHYSICALLY PRESENT at church in order to cast your vote. We will be broadcasting the vote on Zoom, but no virtual votes will be taken or counted. If you need transportation or assistance getting to church to vote, please contact the Ministerial Search Team at churchsearch2324@gmail.com.

Questions?

Please contact the Ministerial Search Team with any questions or concerns, churchsearch2324@gmail.com. Thank you for your participation in this important occasion as we build our future with Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church. In faithful partnership, Your Ministerial Search Team: Patton Fishel, Carol Beene, Beth Meyer, Sarah Gunter, Dave Dunkirk, Michael Bjerke, and Christy White

Announcements

From the Family of Jean Box:

Jean Box, a longtime resident of Commonwealth Senior Living, and the wife of the late Rev. Howard Box, former ORUUC minister, died peacefully early Friday morning, April 26 with her family by her side. She had moved this week, at her request, from Commonwealth's Independent Living section to its Assisted Living section, after a brief hospital stay, and, regrettably, further decline. Details on ways to express condolences will be shared soon.

Last Sunday, April 21, during the prayers of the community in the morning worship service, we learned that Joel Crow, the son of Hope Waddle, has been moved to hospice care following his cancer diagnosis in February. Several of you have asked where to send a card to Hope, who moved out of the area last year. Here is her current address:

Sheila (Hope) Copeland
304 Winding Branch Court
Christiana, TN 37037

On April 13, the ORUUC Safety Team met with ORPD Officers Steve Romaine and Nick Slater during a regular training to discuss safety practices and procedures.

The Annual May Day Picnic is next Sunday, May 5! Please bring a side dish that feeds at least 6 people. Hot dogs, buns, and condiments will be provided. If you're planning to sit outside, bring a chair or a blanket. For more information, contact Val Herd. There will be no Faith Formation classes or childcare during the second hour (11:15-12:15) on Sunday, May 5. Enjoy food and fellowship with one another!

at ORUUC

Come enjoy Hal Hoyt's wine and listen to the Tanasi Winds Woodwind Quintet on Saturday, June 1st at 3:30 p.m. at ORUUC. The quintet will play a variety of music from pop (Beatles, rags, swing), to showtunes, traditional-based pieces and to classical.

Light finger food (in the lobby) will also accompany the wine and music. Tickets are $30 and will be sold at the door. The music starts at 3:30 in the Sanctuary with two 40-minute sets and an intermission. We want this to be casual, relaxed and enjoyable.

Thanx from Hal and RaNaye

Karen Toucey Wilson (June 28, 1944 - April 14, 2024)

Karen Toucey Wilson, 79, of Fairfax, Virginia, passed away on April 14, 2024. She was born on June 28, 1944, in Oak Ridge, Tennessee. She graduated from Oak Ridge High School in 1962, and obtained a Bachelor's degree from Emory University and a Master's degree from the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill.

A service to honor Karen's life will be held at the Oak Ridge Unitarian Universalist Church the morning of May 17, 2024.

While at UNC, Karen met John Wilson, and they married on August 26, 1967. Sons Scott and Brian were born in 1970 and 1973. John's career in the U.S. Navy led them to live all over the world, including Misawa, Japan and Midway Island. When John retired from the Navy in 1982, the family moved to Oak Ridge, where Karen was a research librarian at the Oak Ridge National Laboratory until her retirement in 2005.

Upon her retirement, Karen moved to northern Virginia to be closer to her family, and was very devoted to her granddaughters, giving them piano lessons, watching them after school, and attending many functions and events.

Karen was also a loyal friend, maintaining lifelong relationships with her Toucey and Keelor cousins, high school "Penguins," and college sorority sisters and friends. In her free time, Karen enjoyed reading, gardening, and painting.

She is survived by her sons Scott Wilson (wife Jill), Brian Wilson (wife Jerri Lynn), and granddaughters Ella and Lily Wilson. Karen was preceded in death by her husband John Wilson and her parents Robert and Margery Toucey.

In lieu of flowers, contributions can be made to the Parkinson's Foundation (<https://www.parkinson.org/>) or the Michael J. Fox Foundation for Parkinson's Research (<https://www.michaeljfox.org/>).

We all want more well-being and comfort in our life, but the happiness we find is often elusive and disappointing. Buddhist teachings explain that real happiness stems from inside ourselves. By learning how to meditate, we enter the path to true happiness.

Join us for this special event and learn the meaning and practice of meditation from Lama Lobsang Samten, a Tibetan Buddhist monk and spiritual director of the Paramita Centers in Canada, France, and the US. During the conference, Lama Samten will share his deep knowledge of the meaning of meditation and guide you through simple but profound meditation practices that you can immediately apply. Discover how to start a path to inner peace and mindfulness in your daily life.

This event is free, but we are asking for donations to cover travel costs and expenses.
